EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

Remark

- This Office Action is in response to applicant's amendment filed on July 21, 2006, which has been entered into the file.
- By this amendment, the applicant has amended claims 1-2, 9-11, and 21-22.
- Claims 1-30 remain pending in this application.

Examiner's Amendment

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Mr. Paul Onderick (Reg. No. 45,354) on September 8, 2006.

The application has been amended as follows:

Claim 3, line 2, insert --variable-- before "focusing", delete "device" after "focusing" and insert --unit--.

Claim 10, line 3, insert --variable-- before "focusing", line 4, delete "a" and insert --said-- before "measurement module".

Claim 20, line 2, delete "a" and insert --said-- before "measurement", line 5 delete "a" and insert --said-- before "control unit".

Claim 21, line 21, delete "a" and insert --said-- before "control unit".

Claim 28, delete "11" insert --21--.

Claim 30, line 4, delete "a" and insert --said autofocus-- before "sensor", line 5, before "sensor" insert --autofocus-- , line 6, insert --autofocus-- before "sensor" and delete "a" and insert --said-- before "control unit", and line 7, insert --autofocus-- before "sensor".

Reasons For Allowance

1. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: of the prior art references considered, none has disclosed a display device for generating an image perceived as a viewer as being superimposed on an object located in an object plane wherein the device comprises an image generating unit and a superimposing unit having a first and second beam splitters for deflecting the image light from the image generating device to the second beam splitter then to the viewer and a measurement module or an auto-focus sensor for receiving light from the object located at object plane that passes through the first beam splitter for sensing the object located at the object plane and its sharpness (as recited in claims 11 and 21). The display device further comprises a variable focusing unit having a variable refractive index lens located in the optical path between the image generating device and the viewer and a control unit for controlling the refractive index of the lens by applying variable electrical signal to therefore vary the focusing power of the lens in response to the signal from the measurement module. This allows the image plane from the image generating device and the object plane of the object coincide and the object and the image from the image generation device are seen simultaneously equally focused when the user accommodates to focus the object.

The prior art reference US patent issued to Spitzer (PN. 5,886,822) teaches an image display device that is capable of generating an image that is superimposed on an environment. However this reference fails to provide a measurement module or an auto-focus sensor, a variable refractive index lens and a superimposing unit that based on sensed environment object (i.e. focused object), the object and the generated image whose object plane and image plane are coincide and are seem equally focused simultaneously.

The prior art reference US patent issued to Fergason (PN. 6,379,009) teaches a projection display for projecting an image that is overlaid on an actual view of an object, however this reference does not teach to include a measurement module or an auto-focus sensor, a variable index lens and a superimposing unit that based on the sensed environmental object (i.e. focused object), the object and the projected image whose object plane and image plane are coincide and are seem equally focused simultaneously.

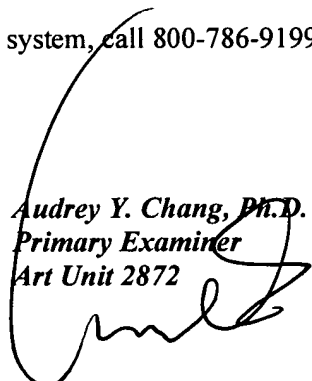

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
